

THE ANDERSON DAILY INTELLIGENCER

VOL. 1 NO. 7.

Weekly, Established 1900; Daily, Jan. 13, 1914.

ANDERSON, S. C. TUESDAY MORNING, JANUARY 20, 1914.

PRICE FIVE CENTS.

$5.00 PER ANNUM.

SEVEN KILLED IN A BATTLE IN OKLAHOMA STATE PRISON

THREE PRISONERS, ARMED,
MADE A DASH FOR LIBERTY.

WERE SHOT DOWN

Among The Civilians Killed Was A Former Federal Judge.

(By Associated Press)
M'Alister, Okla., Jan. 19.—Seven persons were killed and one injured during a battle at the State penitentiary here today when three prisoners with pistols made a dash for liberty.

The dead: John R. Thomas, Muskogee former United States district judge and formerly a congressman from Illinois; P. C. Oakes, deputy warden; F. C. Godfrey, storehouse sergeant;

H. H. Drover, record clerk. Three prisoners. Wounded: Miss Mary Foster, stenographer employed in the penitentiary. The names of the prisoners killed are: China Reed, serving two years sentence for larceny; Charles Koonits, serving forty year sentence for murder; Thomas Law, serving six year sentence for larceny. The men, armed with two revolvers, which had been smuggled into the penitentiary, broke through the ranks while the prisoners were being marched through a courtyard. As they ran through the office they fired several shots at random. Next they encountered in the corridor Judge Thomas, a visitor to the penitentiary, and both of the men carrying pistols opened fire, several of the bullets striking the attorney and inflicting mortal wounds. Oakes and Drover intercepted the men as they left the corridor and were shot to death. The prisoners, unharmed, continued their flight. By this time half a dozen guards were in pursuit and in a running battle Godfrey and the three men were killed. None of the other prisoners attempted to escape.

THE LIVE-STOCK MEN WILL GATHER TODAY

Trades Day Meeting Will be Addressed by J. T. Watt and B. M. Aull.

Farmers from every part of Anderson county will be present Tuesday to take an active part in the meeting of the executive committee and township commissioners of live stock association. This association holds monthly meetings in the Anderson Chamber of Commerce and the event is always well attended. This month it coincides with the annual trades day. Secretary Wheeler said last night that he expects Friday's meeting to be an especially good one and that he is anticipating it with much interest on account of the good he felt sure it would do those who attended and took part in the meeting. The meeting is to be called to order promptly at 11 o'clock Tuesday morning, J. G. Harris of Bolton, acting as chairman. The invocation will be delivered by Rev. O. L. Martin of Anderson. The principal address of the day is that to be delivered by J. T. Watt, United States farm demonstrator. Mr. Watt will speak on the subject "How to Raise Hogs." An address along this same line will also be delivered by B. M. Aull of Antun, who will raise 500 hogs this year. The program for the afternoon will be taken up with a general round-table discussion of questions relating to live stock, the proper manner of handling and managing animals, the diets, and other questions equally as interesting to those who are engaged in this line of industry. The meeting today will be a great success.

HOLIDAY AT SENeca

Lee's Birthday Observed. News Notes From Seneca.
Special to The Intelligencer.
Seneca, Jan. 19.—Clemson College observed Lee's birthday today by giving holiday and the entire day made merry throughout the day. Among those Clemson boys who spent the day here with their parents were: N. J. Norman, J. W. Stribling, B. L. Strubling, B. L. Hamilton, I. W. Verner and H. E. Wood.

Mrs. Cunningham and Mrs. Crayton of Anderson, have returned to their homes following a visit to Mrs. J. Q. Adams.

Kelly Moore of Oakway spent Sunday here with his brother.

Mrs. F. F. Masters of Greenville, is spending some time in Seneca, visiting friends and relatives.

Electric Theatre Make Arrangements For Popular Attraction.

Arrangements have been made by the Electric theatre here to show the famous "Gladys" film. As those who read the Saturday Evening Post know, this is a story of a young girl who goes to New York, gets taken up by society men and does all things a New York society woman does. In addition the newest of the new fashions will be shown on living models in the establishment of New York's great couturiere.

P. C. OSTEN INVENTS NEW KIND OF LAMP

Says That It Will Give Double
Light — No Added Cost.

There are many things in which Anderson can be proud and there are many things that entitle her to recognition but if a invention just perfected by P. C. Osten should prove to be successful and the manufacturer of the article feasible, Anderson would soon be known far and wide through this agency.

Mr. Osten, who conducts a barber shop in Anderson, has just completed the invention of a new kind of lamp, a light globe, which bids fair to revolutionize this industry. He has had drawings made of his plan and will submit them to a patent expert at once to consider the possibility of putting them on the market. Meanwhile he is securing a patent on the article, application having already been filed in Washington.

The plan of the lamp is simple and to the casual observer it seems that it should be a success. It is constructed somewhat on the style of the new type of globe, with a glass tube running down through the center for a space of two inches, this tube being one inch in diameter. The tube is silvered on the inside so as to give great reflecting power and by the arrangement of the filament circling the tube, together with this reflecting power from the silvering, the candle power of the lamp will be doubled while the same amount of current will be consumed.

Mr. Osten some time ago invented the shaving cup, which, using liquid soap and is entirely sanitary. The Sanitary Shaving Mug Co., has been organized to manufacture this product and in all probability will soon be able to begin shipping the cups. The company is capitalized at $2,000 and has as its officers, J. O. Sanders, president and J. H. Godfrey, secretary and treasurer. It is planned to have the glass parts of the cup made to special order in Pennsylvania and the remainder of the article will be finished here, the offices being located at 128 North East street. Mr. Osten says that he thinks he will be ready to begin shipping within the next 30 days.

He has also devised a system for preventing railroad wrecks which he hopes will prove successful and which he has every reason to believe will be a success. Some time ago the N. Y. & N. H. railroad offered a prize of $10,000 to any man who would plan some system for preventing a wreck and Mr. Osten at once went to work on a system. He forwarded his plan to the railroad company and has received a letter from one of the chief officials of the line, requesting that he make a few changes and alterations in the plan and return to them. Mr. Osten has made these changes and the plans have gone back with some hope for their being accepted. The first plan provided for a third rail. The latter plan for a trolley.

says that he is planning to bring it to the attention of Southern Railway officials and hopes to be able to interest Mr. Fairfax Harrison.

THIS IS REED'S TOWN.
His Song Composed on the City's Slogan.
One of the chief events of Reed Miller's musical at Anderson Female College last night was the rendition of "Anderson is My Town", the words being by George Miller and the music by Reed Miller. It made a splendid hit and the audience enjoyed it.

MR. COOPER CHEERFUL.
Thanks His Chances For Governor Are Fine.

Special to The Intelligencer.
Laurens, Jan. 19.—Hon. R. A. Cooper, solicitor of the eighth circuit, is very much pleased on account of the outlook in his candidacy for governor. Mr. Cooper has been devoting some time to the interests of his race, and has received much encouragement. Mr. Cooper's circuit is composed of Saluda, Newberry, Laurens, Greenwood and Abbeville counties, and in each county he is very strong. As he was reared in that portion of Laurens which adjoins Anderson, Mr. Cooper is expecting a good vote in Anderson. At the conclusion of the legislative session, Mr. Cooper will give the public a full statement of his views on public questions and will announce his platform.

TAX RETURNS
Tuesday is The Last Day to Make Them.

The City Tax Assessor's office will be open until 7 o'clock tonight—the last moment for making a return of income for taxation.

FORWARD STEP BY CITY COUNCIL

LOOKING TO THE PAVING OF STREETS OF THE CITY.

ASK FOR NEW LAWS

To Permit The City To Increase
Its Bonded Indebtedness.

A matter of importance to practically every progressive citizen of Anderson was discussed and acted upon by the city council when a committee consisting of Mayor Hollenman and Kurtz P. Smith, former member of the house of representatives, was named to go to Columbia to urge the Anderson legislative delegation to use their influence in getting a bill passed authorizing the assessment of abutting property owners for street improvements.

It is understood that the matter will soon be before the general assembly. Such a bill as outlined was submitted last session, and passed the State senate. It was held up in the house, however, and the bill will likely become law within the next month.

The main benefit to be derived from the legislation now proposed will be street paving. Every city of any size and importance has a need of this sort of legislation, and it is absolutely necessary for Anderson to secure it if this city is to go ahead with street paving and street improvements.

FRANCHISE IS CARRIED OVER

DISCUSSER BEFORE SPECIAL MEETING OF CITY COUNCIL
LAST NIGHT.

WOULD BE ILLEGAL

Opinion of City Attorneys Was That Changes Could Not Be Made Last Night.

No action was taken at the city council last night in changing the wording of the franchise recently granted to the Southern Public Utility company. In stating the subject of the meeting Mayor Hollenman said that it is the opinion of City Attorney C. Cullen Sullivan that under the rules of the council, no ordinance could be introduced and passed at a special meeting of the council unless the council would vote unanimously to suspend the rules.

There was some question in the minds of some of the aldermen as to the legality of the ordinance even should the rules be suspended by unanimous consent, so it was decided in order to insure the legality of the council's action to take the matter over to the next regular meeting of the body, which is scheduled for February 10th.

The franchise passed by the council on December 22nd, which must be accepted by the company, according to a provision therein contained, forwarded to the officials of the company at Charlotte, N. C. immediately after its passage. A few days later the mayor received a revised franchise, the revisions being made in that part of the franchise known as "Memorandum of agreement" and a request that council take the matter under consideration again and make three insertions in the franchise. The first insert is the word "now" referring to the water hydrants now in use, and the other two insertings being "first" and "next" referring to the rates to be charged for lighting. All three words are material, and were omitted unintentionally by counsel when the franchise was adopted. Along with the revised franchise the company sent its acceptance referring, of course, to the corrections.

In order that there should be no question at all as to the legality of council's action, Mr. McClure thought it best to defer action, letting the franchise matter take its regular course. He said that he thought it would be fair to the Southern Public Utility company as well as to the people of the city that the company most assuredly would not want the council to pass a franchise which later may be decided as illegal. It was on his motion, or rather on his objection to a suspension of the rules, that the matter was carried over to the February meeting.

TWO MUCH EXPENSE
Comptroller General Gives Due Warning.

Columbia, Jan. 19.—"If you make all the appropriations asked for it will be necessary to make a rate of 7 1/2 cents on the dollar to raise them," says A. W. Jones, Comptroller General, in his annual statement showing the needs of the State. He says that this does not include the one mill special school tax, which will raise $28,441.12. The Comptroller General estimates that $2,478,440.30 will be necessary to meet all demands on the State Government as compared with $1,857,117.01 in 1913.

LEGISLATIVE ELECTIONS.
Places That are to be Filled in Joint Assembly.

The joint assembly adjourned at 1:55 o'clock to reassemble at 9 o'clock Tuesday night, when the elections will be resumed in the following order: State Librarian Insurance Commissioner, two trustees of the University of South Carolina, two trustees of Winston Normal and Industrial College, three trustees of Clemson College, one member of the board of visitors of the Citadel, two trustees of Mechanical College, two directors of the State colored Industrial and the State penitentiary and one trustee of the medical College of South Carolina.

Death of Mr. James Crawford.

Mr. James Crawford, a well known farmer living just South of the city, died at his home there about 1 o'clock Sunday after an illness of some time. He is survived by his wife and four children—three sons and one daughter. The funeral and interment took place today at 3 o'clock at Mountain Creek Baptist Church.

GREAT CHIEF REMEMBERED

ANDERSON COUNTY VETER-ANS AT MAGNIFICENT DINNER

REED MILLER SANG

Stars and Bars Proudly Waved
At a Splendid Event Yesterday.

A scene more dear to the heart of a Southern born and bred, would be hard to imagine than that presented yesterday when the Robert E. Lee Chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, entertained the Confederate Veterans of Anderson county at a splendid banquet. The combination of the veterans in their gray with their brass buttons polished until they shone like gold, the matronly ladies in charge of the dinner and the blooming youth of those young ladies who are to not as sponsors and maid-of-honor for the veterans at the reunion, presented a picture which could not but be touching and which never fails to awaken within the hearts of the coming generation the fires of patriotism which are never to be quenched.

The dinner was served in a vacant store room on Whitner street and the long hall was crowded with veterans and friends when the exercises were opened. The first feature on the program was the singing of "Dixie" as the veterans entered, this being splendidly rendered by the members of the U. D. C.

When the veterans were seated the welcome on behalf of the chapter was tendered by Mrs. R. C. Webb in a few timely and well delivered remarks.

A telegram of greetings to the camp from Mrs. S. Blackley, who is in Baltimore, Md., for treatment, was read and enthusiastically received. The invocation was rendered by Father Edward A. Duff, of St. Joseph's Catholic church, in a very fitting manner, original verse being employed.

The dinner which was then served was a splendid affair, no single feature having been neglected which might go to make the day one of happiness for the veterans. It was well served and the billings menu left nothing to be desired.

Col. Brown Spoke.
Following the conclusion of the dinner, the chair of toastmaster was occupied by Gen. M. L. Bonham, who introduced as the first speaker, Col. Joseph N. Brown. Col. Brown spoke from his many experiences with Gen. Lee, narrating the events leading up to and including a number of the best known battles of the war. He gave his hearers a clearer conception of the man and the hero than many of these present had ever had before. He was cheered at intervals.

A message was presented from J. H. Burdine, regretting that his illness made it impossible for him to be present in person and assuring his hearers that he was with them in spirit.

Miss Miller of St. Louis, was introduced and made some touching remarks. He had never before had the opportunity of witnessing a Confederate gathering and he gave thanks for this opportunity which allowed him to see congregated a band of men who fought so valiantly under the flag, always to be remembered as near and dear to every Southern heart.

Mr. Miller in a few well chosen words introduced to the veterans, Miss Alberta Brock as sponsor for the First Brigade, U. C. S. V. Gen. C. A. Reed commanding, Miss Brock is the daughter of Lieutenant J. A. Brock who served with Lee.

Miss Martha Bonham, daughter of Gen. M. L. Bonham, was next introduced as first maid of honor for the brigade, and was characterized as being "truly a daughter of the Confederacy."

Miss Ligon of Spartanburg, was introduced as another maid of honor from Confederate parentage, following which the young ladies were greeted with much enthusiasm. The body of veterans arose as a whole and with a hearty good will tendered their compliments to the charming young ladies who represent them.

made him known throughout the continent—Fred Miller." Mr. Miller sang in fine form the song that never fails to awaken in a Southern audience a spirit of enthusiasm that will run high, "Dixie." Mr. Miller gave the rendition that was most familiar to his hearers and they joined in on the chorus with ardor that made the building rock. It was inspiring in every sense of the word.

Telegrams of sympathy and respect were dispatched to those who had remembered the camp, even from the beds of sickness and resolutions of thanks were tendered to the ladies who had made such a day possible for the body.

Mrs. E. R. Horton read a splendid paper which had been prepared by Mrs. S. Blackley on the "New Year," in which some sterling thoughts were advanced and the meeting was duly closed by Gen. Bonham. Thus came to an end one of the most delightful days that Anderson people have ever had the splendid opportunity of participating in.

The Old Soldiers.
The following names of the veterans present for the affair were taken from the register which was passed around shortly before the conclusion of the dinner: Joseph N. Brown, R. F. Dirver, I. P. Smith, W. C. Brink, M. A. Cobb, M. E. Delful, E. H. Gumbrell, J. B. Hubbard, J. R. Cochran, J. F. Clunklescales, Edward Whitten, L. E. Campbell, J. M. Dunlap, Sam McTear, B. T. Tolleson, J. C. Wilson, Eu-

By Review of Reviews company.
GENERAL ROBERT E. LEE, O. G. A. C. V.
COMMANDER OF THE ARMY OF NORTHERN VIRGINIA.

gene Parks E. J. Henderson, J. A. Eakew, W. Russell, John W. Thompson, A. C. Keys, G. W. Irvin, J. M. Harper, S. I. Holman, E. J. Burden, J. W. Simpson, J. P. Cox, J. W. McGraw, W. C. Cann, J. F. C. Jones, J. S. Greer, A. L. Welch, J. E. Hall, L. J. Scott, I. Garrison, W. T. W. Harrison, J. W. Baldwin, B. F. Wilson, R. E. Thomson, J. G. Gordon, J. C. Jones, J. N. Hyrum, S. J. Davis, W. L. Dalrymple, Oliver Bolt, S. V. Irby, W. L. Dobbins, W. H. Campbell, D. H. Russell, John Eakew.

GOING TO NEW YORK.
Dr. J. E. Watson Who May Locate in Anderson Later.

Special to The Intelligencer.
Tva, S. C., Jan. 19.—Dr. J. E. Watson leaves today for New York where he expects to take a post graduate course in medicine. He will be gone a month.

He will take Mrs. J. C. Oshment with him to Baltimore, where she will undergo an operation in John Hopkins hospital.

(The Intelligencer hears that Dr. Watson will locate here for the practice of medicine as a specialist.)

GREAT NERO VIOLINIST.

Will Be Here Tuesday Night at Reed Street School.

Prof. Joseph H. Douglass, the world's greatest colored violinist, will appear in grand recital at the colored graded school, Reed street, on Tuesday, Jan. 20, 8 p. m.

He is director of orchestra and violin instructor at Howard University, Washington, D. C. It will be a rare treat and all are most cordially invited to be present.

W. H. Gassaway.

LEVER'S BILL PASSED HOUSE

FOR FEDERAL AID TO FARM
SCHOOLS

$10,000 PER ANNUM

Later This Will Be Increased
Steadily Under This Bill.

(By Associated Press)
Washington, Jan. 19.—The agricultural extension bill, providing for Federal aid in the dissemination of scientific farm information, was passed by the house. Under the measure various agricultural colleges would receive Federal funds to finance plans for acquainting farmers with facts established by the department of agriculture.

As it passed the house, the bill would provide for an immediate appropriation of $40,000, of which $10,000 would go to each State complying with the requirements of the law.

STATE CAPITAL

Special Correspondence.
Columbia, Jan. 19.—There is quite a contingent here from Anderson working in the interests of Capt. W. A. Hudgens, candidate for Bureau of insurance commissioner. Cotton manufacturers from Anderson and other parts of the State are here in the effort to get justice from the legislature in the proposed bill which would increase the regulating labor.

The Governor Monday vetoed the sentence of six months in the State penitentiary for a man who had been taken to the county jail.

Sessions of the general assembly will be resumed Tuesday night. Several important measures are scheduled to come up for consideration this week. The McTear cotton warehouse bill will be considered at the session of the senate Wednesday.

The South Carolina Plant Breeders' Association held two interesting and instructive sessions here today.

H. W. Barre of Clemson College, was here today preparing to ship the South Carolina exhibit to Dallas, Texas, next week for the National Corn Exposition.

The South Carolina State Farmers Union in session Monday night, endorsed the cotton warehouse bill pending before the general assembly. The union also endorsed the bill of Clemson College in its war on hog cholera. An appropriation for tick eradication in South Carolina was endorsed. The home state of fertilizers was urged upon the members.

The South Carolina architects meet at noon Tuesday.

Hon. Jim F. Byrnes of Aiken, member of congress from the Second congressional district, makes an announcement from Washington that he will not be in the race for governor this summer.

A. D. C.

MR. OSBORNE ILL.

Has Been Confined to His Home For Several Days.

Mr. W. R. Osborne, a member of the firm of Osborne & Pearson, is confined to his home by illness. Mr. Osborne's many friends hope that his indisposition may be of short duration and that he may soon be completely recovered.

SUBSCRIPTION BLANK

THE ANDERSON DAILY INTELLIGENCER.
Anderson, S. C.

Gettlemore.—Please enter my name as a subscriber to The Daily Intelligencer. I am (or am not) taking the semi-weekly Intelligencer.

NOTE.—If you are a subscriber to the semi-weekly and your subscription is paid in advance, you may receive credit for the amount paid. The subscription of the daily is $5.00 per year; $2.50 for six months. Please enclose check or money order.

Name _____
Address _____
R. F. D. or St. No. _____